Congratulation and best wishes to John Haston who celebrates his 100th birthday on Saturday 20 May.

Many thanks to all those who deliver Wagtail round the parishes, and a particular thank you to Eric Pelter, who has delivered more than fifty copies around Whittington each month since Wagtail came into being! Sadly he has now retired and we have had to replace him with three new volunteers. Again, very many thanks to everyone involved. Sue Kimber

Hornby Swimming Pool has been mothballed for six months to allow a local group to try to raise funds to save it. The campaign group is setting up a Community Benefit Society and inviting people to pledge multiples of £25 (the cost of one 'share' in the society) to try to save the pool. Send pledges (no money at this stage) to lunevalleycs@gmail.com or 01524 805666, or come along to a public meeting at Hornby Institute to find out more at 7pm on Monday 15 May.

Alice Roberts is celebrating her 21st birthday in April with fundraisers for North West Air Ambulance and Lune Valley Community Society (which aims to save Hornby Swimming Pool). A quiz about the Lake District is on sale for NWAA, and a quiz about the North West of England (set by Janette and Andrew White) is on sale for the Hornby Pool fund. "The pool and the availability of a hoist made a great contribution to my recovery from my accident in 2010" – as did a flight in the air ambulance. The quizzes are £1 each at various local shops, or order both (and a bundle for friends and family) direct from Alice on 21047. Return them by 9 June for prizes including a voucher for Hornby Butchers, an Easter basket of goodies, a signed CD of harp music and more.

Lunesdale Lawn Tennis Club is in the aptly-named Ball Lane in Caton, with two floodlit all-weather courts open all year round and three grass courts open from April to September. There is both team and social tennis, coaching is available by arrangement, and there are free fun sessions for juniors every Monday in term time 7pm to 8pm. There are open days on Sundays 7 and 14 May 2pm to 5pm – all welcome – or visit lunesdaletennis.net, or for more information about junior sessions contact Siobhan Tough on 01524 770000 or shivtough@btinternet.com

Arkholme Parish Council met on Mondays 6 March and 3 April. This year's Hopewell Cup competition will be a Traditional Style Cake Competition, incorporated with the School Sports Day, with three categories: adult male, adult female, and schoolchild. The Empty Homes Officer at Lancaster City Council has been informed about the state of disrepair of the farm house at Storrs Gate Farm. The clerk will inform the Planning Case Officer about the severe hedge pruning undertaken opposite Thorneys. Councillors agreed to donate £100 each to the Children's Sports Day, the Children's Party Committee, and Wagtail Playgroup. The annual £12 rent for each of the pounds had been collected and banked. The clerk will complete the Local Plan Consultation Response Form with councillors' comments regarding Arkholme being unsustainable for new development because of lack of facilities, and South Carnforth being in the designated greenbelt. Scaffolding at the West House development has been reconfigured so as not to block the pavement. Tree preservation orders were confirmed for trees between The Herb Garden and The Sheiling.

Whittington Parish Council held a special open meeting on Monday 6 March. Present were five Parish Councillors, the clerk, and forty-two members of the public. The Chairperson put the motion to parishioners that This Parish Meeting confirms its support of the Parish Council and the decisions made over the past 24 months. Various views and issues were put forward by parishioners and discussed at length. Support from parishioners was accepted with regard to fiscal maintenance, an official Whittington Village website being established, and improvement in communication and minute taking. The motion was carried with 39 votes in favour, one against, and two abstentions. The open meeting was closed and a Parish Council meeting followed. Councillors discussed alleged speeding of vehicles through the village. It was clarified that the increase in precept was not specifically for a Speed Indicator Device, and more information was needed. The Town Quarry gate has been repaired and the posts replaced. The litter-pick had been a success. There was still a dog-mess problem on public footpaths. Flytipping, potholes, water rising from a manhole, and the state of Hosticle Lane, were all reported to FixMyStreet. One bench repair was complete and another was pending. The meeting was adjourned, and continued on Wednesday 29 March, when plans were advanced for a new Parish Council website for the village. The future of bus service 81A is still undecided by Stagecoach, but Kikrby Lonsdale Coaches may be proposing an alternative service – details to be confirmed. Councillors made a grant of £50 to Wagtail parish magazine. The planning application for development behind the Dragons Head had been refused again; the application concerning the Old School was awaiting a decision. Next meeting Annual Parish Meeting 7pm on Monday 8 May, then Annual General Meeting 7pm on Monday 15 May.

The weather in Arkholme

March Weather in Arkholme

11 Slightly Wet Days (less than 5mm) together adding up to 21.8mm

10 Decidedly Wet Days (from 5mm to just under 25mm) together adding up to 88.1mm

0 Extremely Wet Days (25mm and over)

21 Rain Days in total adding up to 109.9mm (4.3 inches) – leaving 10 dry days

Wettest Day 18th-19th had 18.7mm

March came in with nearly 20mm of rain in the first four days, but then was much dryer until the rains restarted strongly on the 16th, adding nearly 70mm in the next eight days. Then it dried again before finishing the month with another 13 mm in the last four days. It was therefore a month of contrasts in rainfall, and associated weather, which makes a welcome change from months where the weather seems to get stuck in a rut. Afternoon temperatures moved around from modest values in the cloudy periods, to 17 and 17.5°C on the afternoons of the 25th and 26th. I recorded only two air frosts in the month - one on the morning of the 2nd and the other on the morning of the 25th. April has so far been extraordinarily dry, with only 12mm in the first eighteen days.

In lovely weather on the afternoon of Easter Monday (April 17th), a small group of us were strolling along the bridleway to the Arkholme-Melling viaduct, recovering from a splendid lunch. Suddenly we were sprinkled by smallish drops of rain falling from a nearly clear blue sky. The drops were about 1mm in diameter, and such drops fall at about 5 metres per second (roughly 10 mph), because that is the speed at which the pull of gravity is balanced by the frictional drag of the drop of that size falling through the air. At this rate they fall about 300m in a minute in quiet air, which means that they had probably been falling for about 10 minutes from their formation zone about 3,000 metres above our heads - not vertically above us, since the light northerly blowing at the time must have carried the drops about 2km southwards as they fell. So if, ten minutes before we were surprised by the “magic rain”, we had had the prescience to look 2km to the north to a height of 3 Ingleboroughs, we might have seen the smallish cloud which grew the raindrops in the first place. But we didn't, and so we were surprised and teased because that particular cloud had evaporated by the time we were sprinkled. The sky was a picture anyway: the gloomy overcast of a weak front had been replaced in the early afternoon by a largely blue sky, to the north and west, dotted by these smallish clouds working their magic.

Scientists are getting excited about a moon of Saturn which may have conditions conducive to the development of life. I know I should be interested, but nothing could remotely compare with the Lune Valley on a fine Easter Monday, with Oystercatchers piping as they swerve over the viaduct, and mysterious raindrops falling on our heads.

By the end of March there have been 22 dry days in 2017, 48 Slightly Wet Days giving 70mm of rain, 10 Decidedly Wet Days giving 209mm and no Extremely Wet Days, a total of 68 Rain Days giving 279mm of rain.

Robin McIlveen

Arkholme and District WI

We were back in Arkholme for our April meeting, where Janice welcomed twelve members and one guest. Our visiting speaker Ruth Gibbons spoke enthusiastically and humorously about “Eating Well, Feeling Great”. She reminded us that ‘good advice’ on food and nutrition seems to change from week to week, but Ruth’s golden rule is: eat a variety of foods in the right quantities and proportions to maintain a healthy weight. The government’s 1980s campaign to improve the health of the nation, hoping to cut down on heart attacks and strokes, is a good plan to follow, using their famous divided-plate poster showing proportions and amounts as a guide. Ruth recommended rapeseed oil as a good fat to help us keep HDLs high and LDLs low. Alcohol to be consumed in moderation; red wine contains healthful flavinols. Ruth’s important message was: don’t spoil your life by worrying about food fads; enjoy your food, but use common sense, and remember, what matters is not the years in your life, but the life in your years.

The Treasurer reported a healthy bank balance, we are very grateful to Arkholme for their generous donation. Barbara reported on the Spring Conference in Southport which she had greatly enjoyed, particularly the talk by an inspirational female Tornado pilot, and a very humorous talk by Leslie Smith who spoke about Nell Gwyn. Two more outings have been arranged by Anne Symons, to Larch Cottage on 22 March and to Raby Castle on 28 June.

Our next meeting will be in Whittington Village Hall on Monday 8 May at 7.30pm, when the resolutions will be discussed, and our choice will be sent to the Lancashire Federation, and then the chosen one will go on to the National Federation, and then on to lobby the government on our behalf. Our visiting speaker will be Rosemary Blanchfield, who will speak about Denman, the WI’s college in Oxfordshire. Visitors welcome as always.

Gerald writes...

That wonderful man John Haston will be 100 years old this month. Over the years John and his late wife Muriel devoted much of their leisure time on village committees, first helping to raise funds to build the village hall, and later as chairman of the committee. He and Muriel rarely missed an event held in the hall. John was also the chairman of the Horticultural Society which held the annual flower show. It was always the case if you wanted something doing in the village John was always willing to help. I will always have so many happy memories of our work together on the village hall committee and the friends we made running the dances there. Have a very happy birthday John.

Whatever happened to the Solar Farm that was going to be built on Sadler Nook Lane, that promised untold funds for the village? Did they find out that there is not enough sunshine in Whittington, or are there great crested newts in the beck?

Our street had not been swept for at least six months until last week when a sweeper suddenly arrived, the driver must have enjoyed the scenery as for the next two hours he went up and down the street at least ten times. He left the street beautifully clean but surely with all this modern equipment one time up and down should have been enough.

Come along to Whittington Church Heritage day on Sunday 21 May when some of the collection of my Whittington Archive material will be on display, along with old photos, maps, and other items I have collected over the years. I hope to see you there.
